

Name _____

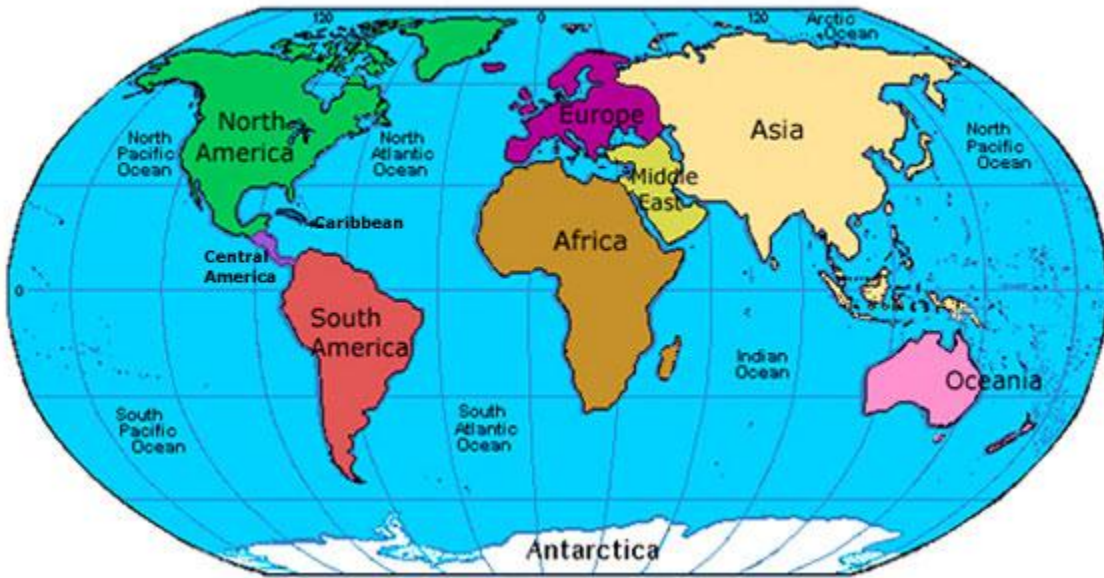

Map Reading Across the Continents Review

1. Circle "Physical" or "Political" below each map:

Physical

Political

Physical

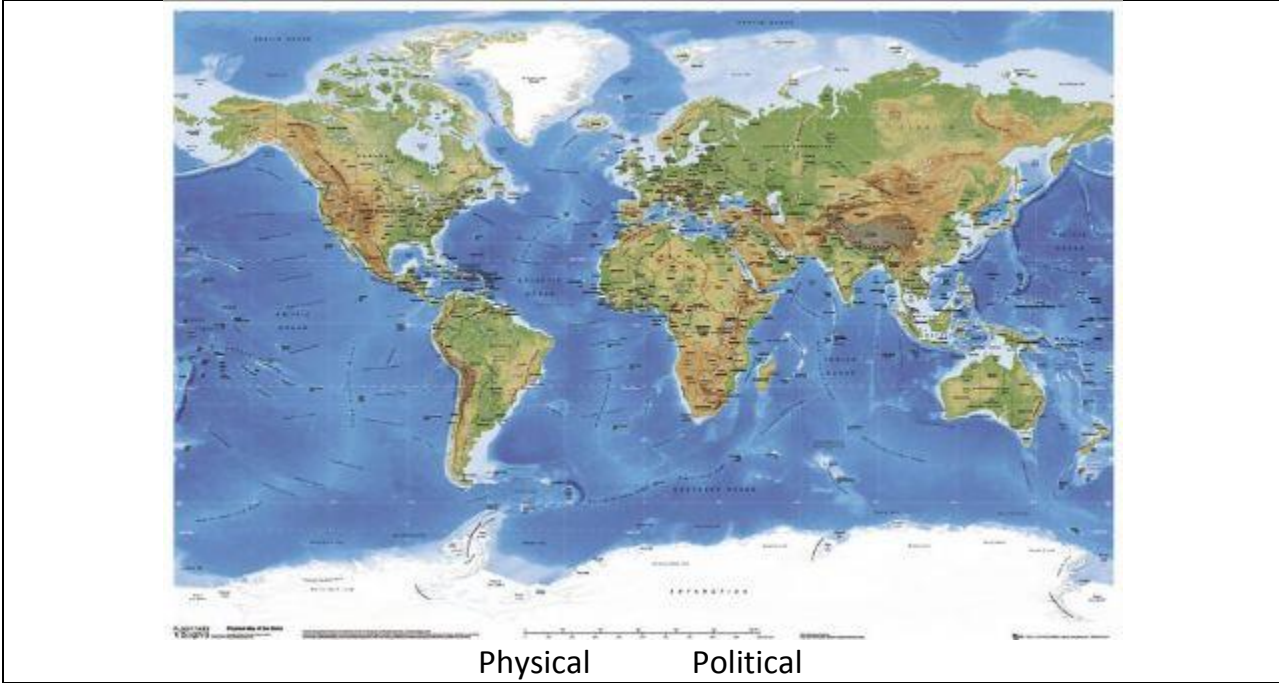

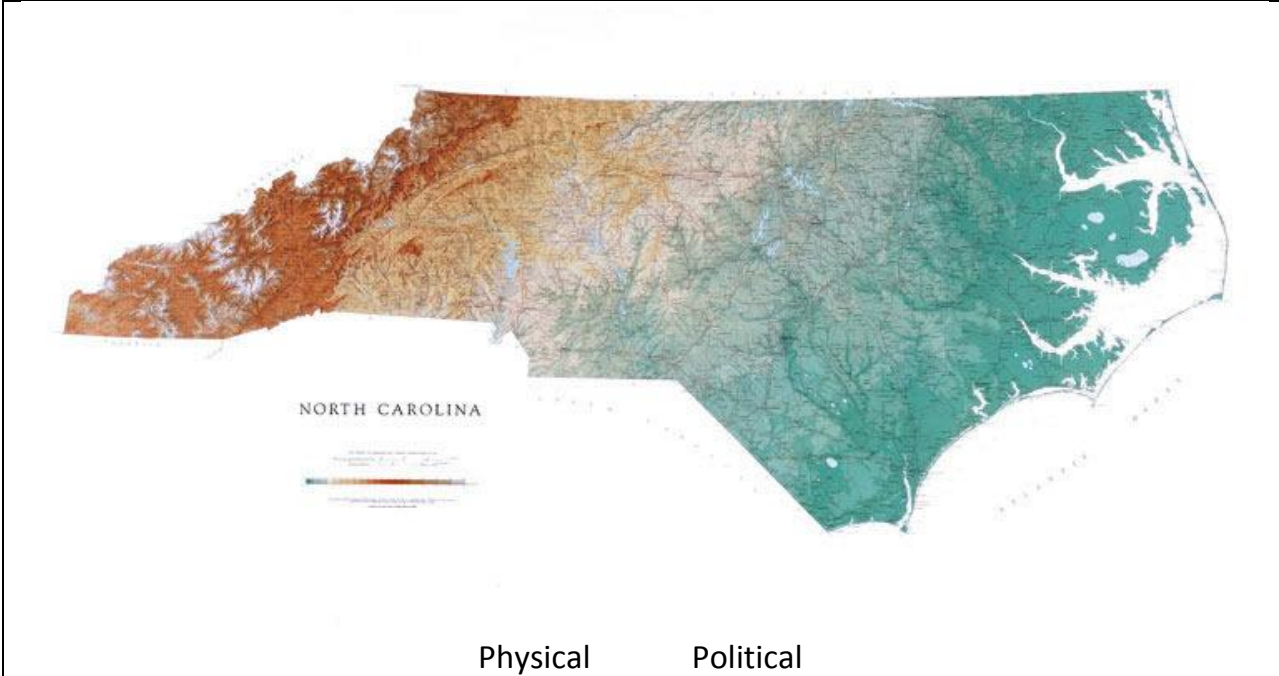

Political

Physical Political

Physical Political

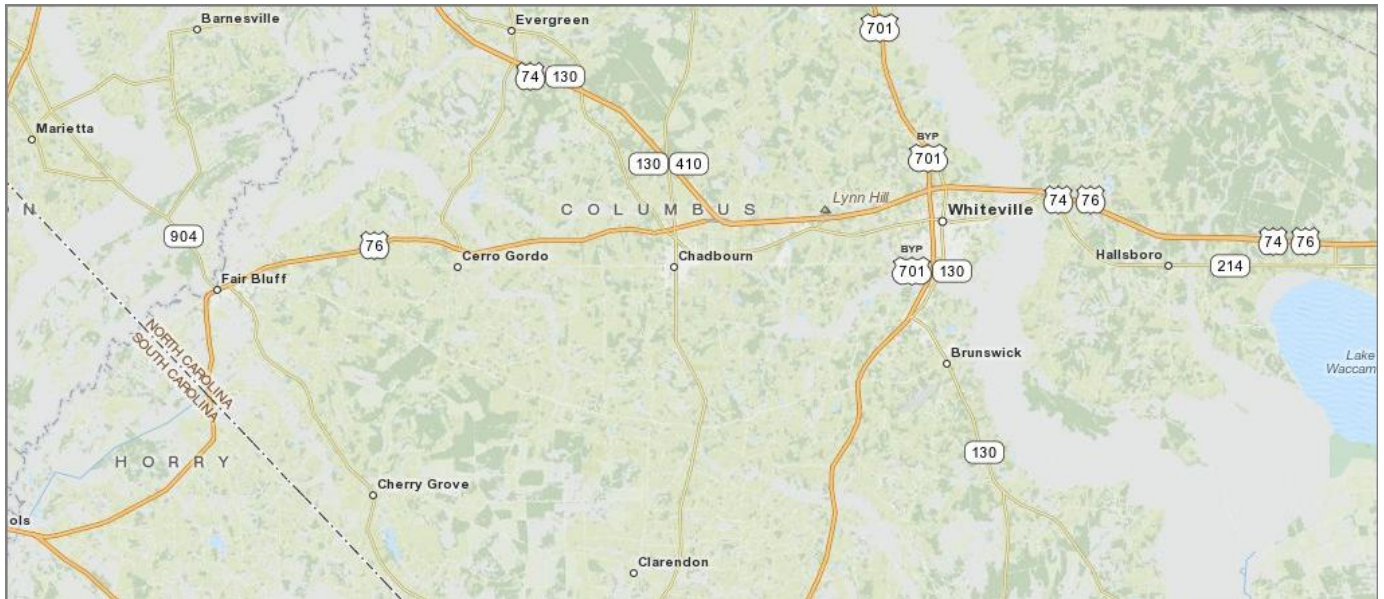

2. What color is used to represent lakes, rivers, oceans, and other bodies of waters?

3. Why are colors like yellow, pink, green, brown, and orange used on maps?

4. How do map makers show different states, countries, continents, and other man-made areas?

5. Circle your town on the map below.

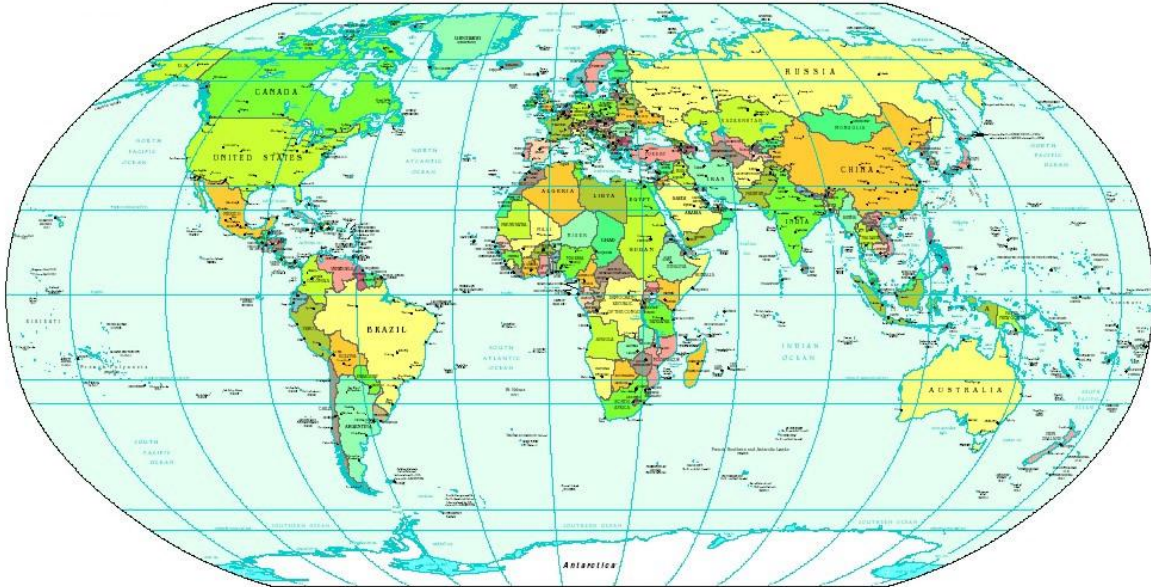

6. Circle your state on the map below.

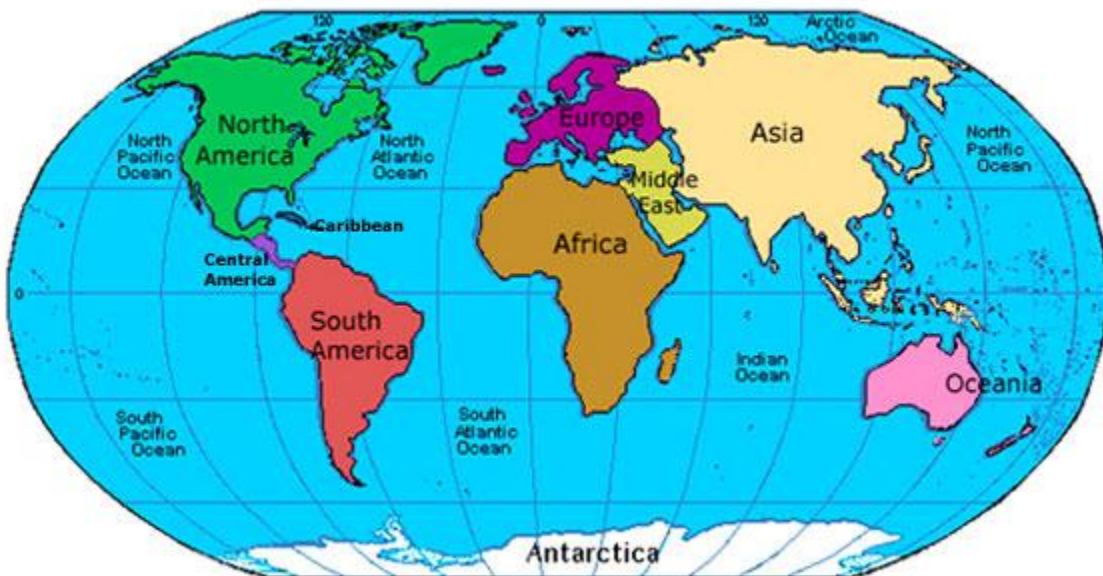

7. Circle your country on the map below.

Political map of the World 2004

8. Circle your continent on the map below.

9. How is it possible to live in a town, state, country, and continent all at the same time?

10. a. List three cities in North Carolina: (Use map below.)

b. List three cities in North Carolina: (Use map below.)

11. Match the characteristics with the continent. (Each continent will have 2 or more answers.)

Asia _____ Africa _____ North America _____ South America _____ Antarctica _____ Europe _____ Australia _____	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> a. Has the world's largest rainforest- the Amazon Rainforest b. Countries you may have heard of or read about in this continent: China, Russia, Japan, India, Pakistan, Iran, Iraq, Vietnam c. Countries you may have heard of or read about in this continent: United States of America, Canada, Mexico, Cuba, Honduras, Costa Rica, Greenland d. Connected by land to Europe e. Has the highest mountain in the world- Mt. Everest f. Second largest continent in the world g. Has the largest desert in the world- the Sahara Desert h. Countries you may have heard of or read about in this continent: Egypt, Sudan, Madagascar, Nigeria, Kenya, South Africa i. Third largest continent in the world j. Includes arctic areas in the north which are icy and snowy all the time, and warmer areas in the south, where it's hot all year, even in the winter k. Largest continent in the world l. Fourth largest continent in the world. m. Has the world's highest waterfall- Angel Falls n. Countries you may have heard of read about in this continent: Brazil, Columbia, Chile, Argentina, Peru o. Third smallest continent in the world p. 98% (almost entirely) covered in ice q. Includes the island country, New Zealand r. No people live there permanently, but thousands of scientists stay there for short periods of time conducting research. s. Few animals live in there- only penguins, seals, arctic terns (a type of bird), fish, whales, and sharks. t. Contains the United States- where you live! u. Second smallest continent in the world v. Contains many small countries that are close together so it easy to travel between countries w. Countries you may have heard of read about in this continent: England, Scotland, Italy, Germany, Spain, France, Ireland, Greece, Sweden x. Smallest continent in the world
----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------